

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION ON THE JOB ADVERTISEMENT FOR THE SCIENTIFIC POSITION

-SENIOR RESEARCH FELLOW IN PERMANENT POSITION-

Job description of the scientific position:

The senior research fellow in permanent position conducts scientific research in accordance with the Institute's scientific research program, publishes the results of scientific and development research, participates in scientific training, works on the improvement of academic activities and the professional development of research assistants and senior research assistants, conducts other tasks related to the Institute's scientific activity, and conducts other tasks assigned by the head of the scientific department and the director of the Institute.

Information on the salary:

- In accordance with the Regulation on job titles, categorization requirements, and coefficients for salary calculation in public services, for the position of senior research fellow in a permanent position, the job complexity coefficient is 4.35, which approximately amounts to a net salary of EUR 2,800, plus transportation costs.

Testing:

A selection procedure will be organized for shortlisted candidates.